Rob Clark

Owner/CEO

Entering his fifth season of ownership with the Rhinos, Clark has been instrumental in turning the Rhinos franchise around, both on and off the field. Clark took over one of the most successful soccer franchises in North America on March 20, 2008 as Adirondack Sports Club LLC announced their acquisition of the franchise rights for the Greater Rochester Area. In his first year as owner the Rhinos in 2008, the Rhinos fell one game short of the USL-1 Championship game. After a disappointing 2009 season, Clark led a return to prominence during the offseason, beginning with the hiring of Pat Ercoli as the team's third General Manager. Just three weeks later the club announced the hiring of Bob Lilley, one of the USL First Division's most respected managers, to lead the club on the field. Those moves resulted in the Rhinos capturing the 2010 Division 2 regular season championship and a trip to the playoffs for the fifteenth consecutive season. Last season, in his fourth year of ownership, the Rhinos won the 2011 USL PRO National Division Regular Season Championship – the second trophy the Rhinos have won during Clark's tenure.

A native of Utica, New York, Clark is responsible for bringing the Rochester Rattlers back to Rochester in 2011. Under Clark's leadership, the Major League Lacrosse franchise returned to action at Sahlen's Stadium last season. This season the Rattlers will look to regain its status as one of the league's premier teams.

Clark's determination to add events to the schedule at Sahlen's Stadium continued this off-season with the announcement that the Adirondack Sports Club would join the Soccer Stadium Alliance. Sahlen's Stadium is joining seven Major League Soccer soccer specific stadiums in a joint effort to attract high profile concerts and special events to the stadium.

Clark is a majority shareholder and board member of Adirondack Bank. Clark has over 15 years of banking experience. He has a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration and a Master's Degree in Finance from Western New England College. He currently serves as a board member of several charitable organizations, most notably, Camp Ronald McDonald for Special Children, the Mohawk Valley Community College Foundation Board and the Save of The Day Foundation. In addition, Clark owns several commercial real estate properties.

He currently resides in Utica with his wife Kaylee. Clark has two children, Dylan and Olivia Clark.

In 2011 Pat Ercoli took over the role of President and Chief Operating Officer of Adirondack Sports Club LLC. In his first year in charge of day-to-day operations for the club, Ercoli made many significant improvements to the brand name. He entered into a long-term agreement with Sahlen's for the naming rights to Rochester's soccer specific stadium. He worked with Adirondack Sports Club's Owner and Chief Executive Officer Rob Clark to bring the Rochester Rattlers of Major League Lacrosse back to Rochester after a three year hiatus. He worked with Sahlen's owner Joe Sahlen to bring the Western New York Flash, the world's best women's soccer team, and the Women's Professional Soccer Final to Sahlen's Stadium. Ercoli established the Rochester Rhinos Elite Player Development Academy – a youth soccer program that works on youth player development with soccer players and soccer clubs in the Rochester area. In the off-season Ercoli positioned Sahlen's Stadium to join the Soccer Stadium Alliance – a conglomeration of eight soccer specific stadiums who are making a joint effort to secure high profile concerts and special events. On the field, Ercoli hired Richmond Kickers long-time assistant Jesse Myers to become the fifth head coach of the Rochester Rhinos after Bob Lilley announced that he would not be returning to the team after the 2011 season.

Ercoli returned to the Rochester Rhinos for the 2010 season in the role of General Manager. After his hiring in October, 2010 he wasted little time in announcing the hiring of his first Head Coach, Bob Lilley, former skipper in Hershey, Montreal and Vancouver. It was a move that paid immediate dividends, as the club captured the 2010 Division II regular season championship in his first season. Lilley won the 2011 USL PRO National Division Title in his second year in charge of the club.

As Head Coach, Ercoli guided the Rhinos for nine seasons of play. Ercoli is a native of Toronto and no stranger to Rochester soccer fans. Ercoli starred for the Rochester Lancers of the NASL for three seasons (1978-80), where his hard work and tenacious play made him a fan favorite.

Pat Ercoli

As a coach he brought that same philosophy to the Rhinos, and it paid off during the Rhinos' inaugural campaign of 1996. With the help of Vice President/General Manager Chris Economides, Ercoli assembled an expansion team from scratch. While it took a while for the club to come together, by mid-season the Rhinos were arguably one of the hottest professional teams in North America. Wins over the Tampa Bay Mutiny and the Colorado Rapids of Major League Soccer in the U.S. Open Cup Tournament proved to the soccer world that the Ercoli-led squad was a team to be reckoned with, and trips to both the U.S. Open Cup final and an appearance in the A-League championship game further solidified the Rhinos as a competitive force in only the franchise's first season.

1997, Ercoli's Rhinos shot out of the gates with a 4-0 record and looked poised to continue where they had left off the season before. Fortunes turned, however, and a stream of injuries and roster changes took their toll on Rochester. A highlight of the season for Coach Ercoli was his naming as the Head Coach of the Eastern Conference All-Stars at the A-League All-Star game at Frontier Field on July 15, 1997.

In 1998, Ercoli's Rhinos began the season 13-0 on their way to a 24-4 regular season record and 6-0 in the playoffs to capture their first A-League championship. Rochester also lead the league in goals scored and goals allowed. A highlight of the season for Coach Ercoli was his being named A-League Coach of the Year. In addition to Ercoli, five Rhinos were honored as All A-League First Team All-Star selections.

The 1999 season saw the Rhinos overcome numerous injuries and a grueling schedule to post a 22-6 regular season record and capture their first U.S. Open Cup championship, as well as a return trip to the A-League finals against Minnesota. In addition, three Rhinos, Mauro Biello, Craig Demmin and Scott Schweitzer were named to the All A-League First Team All-Star squad, while Pat Onstad received second team honors.

Heading into the 2000 season the Rhinos featured what was arguably their best team to date. After beginning the season with a 2-3 record the Rhinos regrouped to post a 17-9-2 record and a second place finish in the Northeast Division. The Rhinos charged through the A-League's second season going 4-0-1 and winning their second A-League championship in three seasons. On their way, the Rhinos placed four players on the A-League's First Team All-Star squad as defenders Scott Schweitzer and Craig Demmin along with midfielder Yari Allnutt and goalkeeper Scott Vallow were selected. Meanwhile midfielders Lenin Steenkamp and Martin Nash earned Second Team honors. In addition, Vallow, a 23-year old first year Rhino led the A-League in goals against average and was named the 2000 A-League goalkeeper of the year.

Rochester finished the 2001 regular season with a 17-6-3 record and 75 points, good for a second place finish in the A-League's Northern Conference. Key midseason acquisitions of midfielder Stoian Mladenov, defender Kalin Bankov and forward Neathan Gibson along with the stellar play of the Rhinos Most Valuable Player Lenin Steenkamp propelled the team through the postseason with a 5-1 record and their third A-League title in four seasons. Ercoli was selected to coach the USL Select Team that toured Portugal during December, 2001.

Pat Ercoli

The 2002 season saw the Rhinos capture their third Northeast Division title with a 17-8-3 record. Two players, Craig Demmin and Lenin Steenkamp earned All A-League honors as Rochester tried for their third straight league title. Rochester knocked off the Montreal Impact in the second round of postseason action, but lost to Richmond in the second leg of the Eastern Conference Finals. They lost in heartbreaking fashion as the Kickers eventually won 9-8 on penalty kicks after the match finished in a scoreless tie.

In 2003 the Rhinos finished with a 15-7-6 mark which was good enough for second place in the Northeast Division. The season saw the return of Doug Miller, the Rhinos all-time leader in scoring, for the first time in three seasons. Miller didn't disappoint, finishing second in the A-League with 38 points and earning team MVP honors. The Rhinos qualifying for the postseason in 2003, for the eighth consecutive season, earning a hard fought win over Montreal in the first round. The Rhinos weren't so lucky however in the next round as they fell in the Eastern Conference Finals for the second year in a row, this time to the Charleston Battery.

In 2004, Ercoli's last year as Head Coach of the club, the Rhinos finished 15-10-3 in and exited the playoffs in the first round.

Ercoli began his professional soccer career with Toronto Italia (NSL) in 1976 before moving to the Toronto Castors the following season where he won a championship the following season. While playing the next three seasons with the Lancers, Ercoli began playing indoor soccer for the New York Arrows of the MISL; he also spent time playing with Buffalo, Baltimore (where he captured three MISL divisional championships and one league title), and Detroit in the MISL before ending his ten-year professional career with the Cleveland Force.

Since his retirement from the pro game, Ercoli has lived in Rochester with his wife, Karen and his four children (daughters Marybeth and Melissa, sons Ryan and Chris). Prior to joining up with the Rhinos, he ventured into private business and kept active in soccer by coaching youth leagues, and working as an assistant at Finger Lakes Community College and Monroe Community College. He has a USSF "A" Coaching License.

Jesse Myers

Head Coach

On October 11th, 2011 the Rochester Rhinos announced that Jesse Myers would become the fifth coach in franchise history. Myers replaced Bob Lilley after Lilley decided not to return to the club after the 2011 season.

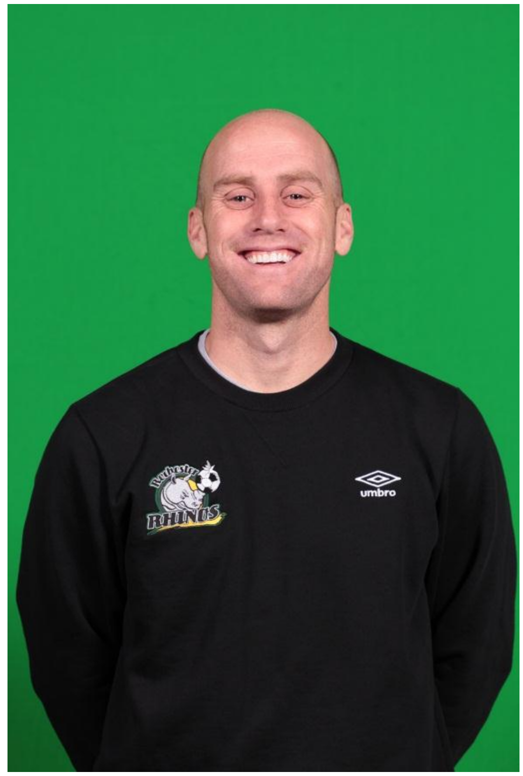

Myers joined the Rhinos after spending the past fourteen seasons with the Richmond Kickers organization. Myers most recently served as Leigh Cowlishaw's assistant coach with the Kickers professional team and as the director of the Richmond Kickers Soccer Academy. During his tenure Myers has coached in over 450 USL matches.

Richmond posted a 224-129-63 record in Jesse Myers time with the organization. The Kickers made the playoffs fourteen times and advanced to the USL League Finals in 2002, 2005, 2007, and 2010. Richmond won the USL Second Division in 2006 and 2009. His teams also posted a 17-11 record in the US Open Cup and advanced to the Semi-Finals as recently as this past season. During Myers tenure the Kickers were 4-8-3 against the Rochester Rhinos in the regular season, but they were able to eliminate the Rhinos from the playoffs in 2002 and 2005. He was part of the Richmond Kickers organization that won the 2006 USL2 Championship. Myers also served as the head coach of the Richmond Kickers Destiny (W-League) and led the team to a 10-5 record and an appearance in the Central Conference Final in 2006.

Jesse Myers joined the Richmond Kickers organization in 1997, and since then he has been involved in virtually every aspect of the organization. Myers has been involved in the extensive recruiting of college and professional players in the United States and abroad. He negotiated contracts and communicated with player's agents. He has developed and organized training sessions for the professional team. He has also scouted opponents, implemented match tactics, and conducted post-match analysis. In the front office Myers performed league and team administrative duties, and he organized the Kickers annual trials.

Myers was a successful college coach before joining the professional ranks with the Richmond Kickers. His college coaching career began as an assistant coach with Limestone College (SC) in 1987. A year he landed his first head coaching job with Spartanburg Methodist Junior College (SC) where he led them to the Regional Tournament (NJCAA) for the first time. Myers landed his first high profile coaching job a year later when he joined the University of North Carolina – Charlotte as an assistant coach. While Myers was on the Charlotte staff they posted a 47-21-10 record over four years. They qualified for the NCAA Division I Tournament twice, ranked in the NCAA Top Twenty rankings twice, and won the Metro Conference in 1992. Myers completed his college coaching career as an NCAA Division I head coach with Philadelphia Textile where he compiled a 30-30-5 record over four years.

Billy Sedgewick

Assistant Coach

Entering his third year as Assistant Coach, Sedgewick;s career in Rochester began as a player when he signed as a free agent on February 24, 1999. Prior to his playing days with the Rhinos the Colorado native played for the Colorado Foxes (1996) and Montreal Impact (1997-98).

After joining Rochester for the 1999 season, Sedgewick would establish himself as one of the fiercest competitors ever to wear the Rhino uniform. In his first season with Rochester, Sedgewick played in 24 games in Rochester's midfield and on defense, helping lead the club to the U.S. Open Cup title that year along with the league finals appearance in Minnesota.

After the loss of Tim Hardy, Sedgewick assumed full-time starter status on defense, teaming up with Craig Demmin, Scott Schweitzer and Mali Walton to make up one of the league's toughest, and most dominant, back four's. With Sedgewick helping to anchor a stingy defense the Rhinos would go on to capture the 2000 and 2001 USL-1 Championships. For his efforts he was named to the Rhinos tenth anniversary "Elite Eleven" squad which honored the eleven best players in team history.

His playing career ended in Rochester after the 2005 season. As a Rhino Sedgewick ranks in the top five in games played, starts and minutes played. He retired from the outdoor game in 2006 after a brief stint with the Montreal Impact.

As a player Sedgewick established himself as a leader in the Rochester Community through his charitable work and donations. During his playing career he was honored four times with the club's community service award. In 2004 after befriending a local child who had been stricken with cancer Bill established his "Quarters for Cancer" fund. This fund was a way to raise money by asking people to donate just twenty-five cents each time they attended a Rhinos match. The money raised went directly to benefit children and their families dealing with the challenges of cancer. The "Quarters" fund has gone on to raise thousands of dollars for local families. He also serves on the board of "Alyssa's Angels" an organization that serves to benefit disadvantaged and needy children in the Rochester area.

Upon returning to Rochester in 2010 as an assistant coach, Bill quickly demonstrated his determination to use his celebrity to help others once again. In addition to running "Quarters for Cancer" and organizing the Rhinos community involvement, he has teamed with Heritage Christian Services and the Pieters Family Home to create the G.O.A.L.S (Giving Opportunities to Athletes that Love Soccer) Soccer League. G.O.A.L.S is an opportunity for Rhino players to interact, teach soccer skills and drills, and scrimmage amongst different age groups of developmentally disabled participants. The event includes adults, teens and children of all ages and is followed each time by a casual barbeque at Marina Auto Stadium with friends, family and members of the Rhinos. Sedgewick has been recognized as an honoree at the 2011 Greater Rochester Awards. The Greater Rochester Awards program recognizes and honors non-profit staff, executives, volunteers, and programs that make the community a better place to live. Sedgewick has been recognized for his exceptional work with the community's non-profit human services sector.

Scott Vallow

Goalkeeper Coach

Scott Vallow will be in his first season as the Rochester Rhinos goalkeeper coach in 2012. Last season Vallow was the goalkeeping coach with the Western New York Flash (WPS) where he mentored Ashlyn Harris. This season he will be charged with training former Bundesliga goalkeeper Krisitan Nicht and rookie talent Brandon Miller. Previously, Vallow was a goalkeeper with the Rhinos for nine years.

Vallow played with the Rhinos from 2000 to 2002 and then returned to the team from 2005 to 2010 after a two-year stint in Major League Soccer with Colorado (MLS) from 2003 to 2004. Vallow retired from the Rhinos after the 2010 season as the club's all-time leader in goalkeeper wins, saves, and shutouts. He won back-to-back A-League Championships with Rochester in 2000 and 2001. He also won the USSF Division Two Regular Season Title with the Rhinos in 2010. Last season Vallow was the goalkeeping coach with the Western New York Flash (WPS), and he captured his first honors as a coach winning the 2011 WPS Cup at Sahlen's Stadium.

In 2000 Vallow was a First Team All-League selection and the A-League Goalkeeper of the Year while leading the Rhinos to their second A-League Championship in three years. Vallow posted a 12-6-1 record with a 0.83 goals-against average in 19 matches in his first full season a starter. The following season he posted an 11-6-1 record with a 0.96 goals-against average in 18 starts as the Rhinos repeated as A-League Champions.

Scott Vallow returned to the Rhinos in 2005 after spending two seasons in MLS. Vallow posted a 13-7-5 record with a 0.92 goals-against average and nine shutouts in twenty-five starts his first season back in Rochester. In 2006 Vallow had the best single season of his career. He posted a 13-4-11 record with a 0.75 goals against average and a career high 14 shutouts. He recorded a clean sheet in both legs of the A-League Semi-finals against Charleston to lead the Rhinos back to the A-League Final for the final time in his career.

After only playing seven games in 2007, Vallow returned to play 29 matches for the Rhinos in 2008. He went 11-9-9 with a 1.07 goals-against average and ten clean sheets. In 2009 Vallow had another solid season. He went 7-7-3 in 18 starts and posted a 1.21 goals against average. Vallow played 14 matches in 2010 and went 7-2-4 with a 0.82 goals against average before passing on the starting goalkeeper's role to Neal Kitson midway through the season. Vallow retired after the 2010 season.

Broadcast Team

JOE GIULIANO
Play-by-play Broadcaster

Joe Giuliano enters the 2011 Rhinos soccer season serving in his fourth year as the “Voice of the Rhinos” taking over play-by-play duties for the Rhinos after having spent the previous eleven seasons as the club’s color analyst. In addition, his duties have included hosting the Rhinos pre-game show and nightly postgame call-in show.

During his broadcast career he has also been the host of the “Soccer Report” a weekly call-in show devoted to soccer fans throughout Rochester

In his fourteen previous seasons, Giuliano has been on the broadcast for four USL-1 championship games and one U.S. Open Cup final. Along with his duties as the Rhinos color analyst, he has served as the analyst for the Fox Soccer Channel’s USL-1 Game of the Week and in addition has served as the channel’s play-by-play voice. The Greece, NY native has also worked as an analyst for the U.S. Women’s National Team. This past off-season also saw him on the call for a pay-per-view match between Costa Rica and Argentina.

His broadcast experience took him off the pitch and onto the ice beginning in 2008-09, where he serves as the Rochester Americans (AHL) pre and post game show host as well as intermission host on Time Warner Sports Channel 26.

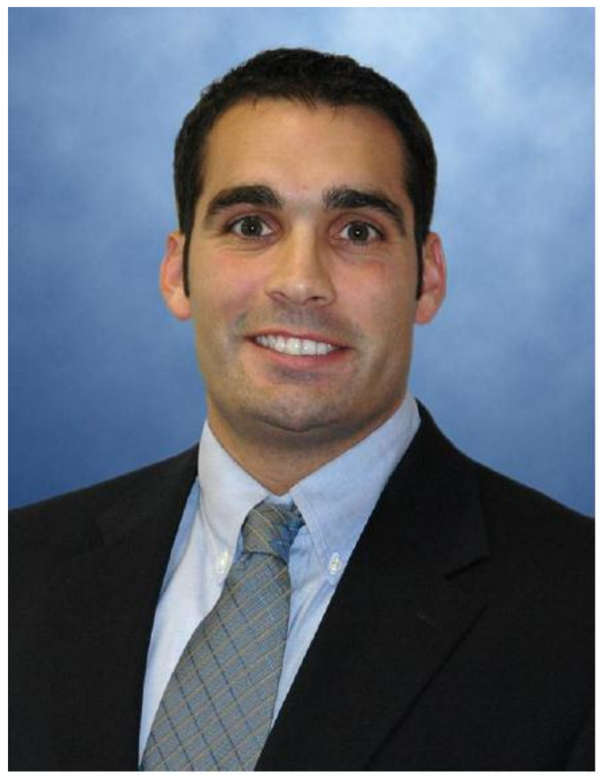

Giuliano has a bachelor’s degree in communications from SUNY Oswego and both a bachelors and masters degree in physical education from SUNY Brockport.

He his wife Kristin reside in Greece with their three sons Giorgio, Joey and Jack.

Broadcast Team

Mike Kirmse
Color Analyst

Entering his second year in the broadcast booth is former Rhino midfielder and defender Mike Kirmse. As a member of the Rhinos from 1997- 2001 “Kirmsey” appeared in 102 games for the Green and Gold, scoring six goals and 24 points. Known for his acrobatic “flip throws,” his twelve career assists with Rochester still ranks ninth all-time in team history.

During the 1999 season, the Long Island native played an instrumental role in helping the Rhinos to the 1999 U.S. Open Cup championship. During the quarterfinals against the Dallas Burn (MLS) at Frontier Field, Kirmse scored the game-winner in overtime, advancing the club to the semifinal round. In the tournament finals against the Colorado Rapids (MLS) Kirmse’s header set up Yari Allnutt’s game sealing goal in the 90th minute.

After his career with the Rhinos ended in 2001, he spent two more seasons playing with Syracuse and Virginia Beach.

In addition to his career in the USL, Kirmse also has playing experience in Germany.

In 2005 he was inducted into the Clarkson University Sports Hall of Fame.

Forward

Height: 5'7"
Weight: 145 lbs
Hometown: Glasgow, Scotland
DOB: 02/28/1981
Citizenship: Scottish
Last Club: Ayr United (Scottish First Division)

Rochester Rhinos: The Rhinos announced that they had agreed to terms with Thomas McManus for the 2012 season on February 6th, 2012.

Professional

Scotland: Tam McManus's professional career started with Hibernian in the Scottish Premier League where he scored nineteen goals in 109 appearances with the club from 1997 to 2005. McManus matured into a first-team regular with Hibs and led the team in scoring in the 2002-2003 campaign. McManus fell out of favor when Tony Mowbroy took over the managerial role at Hibernian in August 2004, and McManus moved to Dundee in the January 2005 transfer window.

McManus immediately found himself in a relegation battle when he arrived at Dundee. When the team was relegated from the Scottish Premier League at the end of the season McManus was photographed lying on the pitch in tears after the final whistle blew on the last day of the season. McManus stuck with the club until the middle of 2006, but he was released on a free transfer due to the clubs financial struggles related to relegation. McManus made thirty-seven appearances for Dundee and scored ten goals.

McManus has been in the Scottish First Division since he left Major League Soccer. First he signed with Ayr United and scored five goals in seventeen appearances. Then he went to Falkirk and scored seven goals in sixteen appearances. McManus most recently signed a short-term contract with Ayr United in late November 2011. The contract expired on January 29, 2012.

MLS: Tam McManus last played in the United States with the Colorado Rapids (MLS) in 2008. He made twenty appearances with the club and scored six goals. McManus's forty-yard golazo against Chivas USA won the Sierra Mist Strike of the Week award. His work ethic and blue collar mentality made him a fan favorite with the Rapids. McManus left the Rapids after the 2008 season.

ROCHESTER RAGING RHINOS
League/Media Information

Greg Stanton
Director of Communications
Sahlen's Stadium
(585) 454-5425

Information Requests: Requests for information should be directed to the Rhinos Communications Department: Rochester Raging Rhinos Soccer Club, 460 Oak Street, Rochester, NY 14608. The phone number is (585) 454-5425. Fax transmissions can be sent to (585) 454-7000.

Media Credentials: Season passes are available only to those media members who cover the team on a regular basis. Those who need media credentials for an individual game should contact the Rhinos Communications Office at (585) 454-5425 by 5:00 p.m. the day before a game. Requests for individual game seating should be provided on your media outlet's letterhead (via fax). Press box seats are filled on a space-available basis. Media credentials will be available two hours before game time.
All media credentials are property of the Rochester Raging Rhinos. The credentials are issued to an organization for the sole purpose of providing stadium access to an accredited individual who has a legitimate working function in connection with a Rhinos' game. The Rhinos reserve the right to confiscate media credentials at any time. Credentials are for working purposes only.

Media Entrance: The Media Entrance at Sahlen's Stadium is the Media/VIP Pass Gate adjacent to the Media/VIP lot. (near Gate D). Only media members, game-day staff, and players will be allowed in that entrance. All tickets must be left at the ticket office.

Media Parking: There are a limited number of parking spots available in the Sahlen's Stadium parking lot and season passes are available only to those media members who cover the team on a regular basis. Those who need parking passes on a game-to-game basis should contact the Rhinos Communications Office by 5:00 p.m. the day before a game.

TV Live Shots: All requests for pregame television live shots should be coordinated through the Rhinos Communications Office. All requests for live shots should be made by 12:00 noon the day of the game in order to make the necessary player arrangements for the interview.

Press Box: To reach the Sahlen's Stadium press box, enter through the Suite Entrance and take the elevator to the second floor (suite level). Only media members, off-field officials, and game-day staff will have access to the press box. Abuse of Rhinos credentials to gain press box access for individuals other than the working media will not be tolerated and will lead to the forfeiture of credentials. A hot meal will be served before each game in the press box to members of the media covering the game.
An unofficial score sheet will be available in the press box at halftime and the official game score sheet will be available immediately following the game in both the press box and the dressing room area. Game and league notes are prepared for each game and can be obtained in the press box.

There are a limited number of phone lines and electrical outlets in the press box. Please contact the Rhinos Communications Office to make special arrangements for phone lines if necessary.

Television Cameras: A television camera platform is located on the suite level at midfield on the same sideline as the benches, behind the field signs. Absolutely no cameras are allowed on the bench-side of the field during the game.

Dressing Rooms: Only credentialed media members will be allowed into the dressing rooms. The room will be open up to two hours prior to kickoff and ten minutes after the game ends. Your cooperation is appreciated in maintaining a working atmosphere in the dressing rooms. No still photography will be allowed.

Training Sessions: The Rhinos will practice regularly at Sahlen's Stadium. Practice sessions typically run 90 minutes. Practice times can and frequently do vary. Members of the media who intend to cover practice sessions on a regular basis should call the Rhinos Communications Office to get the latest information. Media members are encouraged to interview players and coaches at the end of a practice session.

Streaming Video: The Rochester Rhinos games – including all 24 regular season USL matches, playoff matches, exhibition "friendlies" and U.S. Open Cup matches – will be broadcast live on USL Live with play-by-play broadcaster Joe Giuliano and color commentator Mike Kirmse.
